Important

I release all responsibility of the Omnium Champlain, it's officers and organizers for all damages, physical or material incurred directly or indirectly to the boat, its equipment or crew. I agree to comply with the International Yacht Racing Rules of my division if contrary to articles 77 & 78 of the IRR. All decision made by the racing committee are final and without appeal. Article 26 concerning publicity and sponsoring is not in effect for this race. I certify that the name, number and registration of the boat are legitimate. The boat will be equipped with all of the security and safety accessories and equipment approved by the United States Coast Guard to sail on the lake. I understand that it is my responsibility to participate, at the time of departure, or to abandon anytime during the race considering the weather conditions.
